CPC Response to the Honorable Sacred Knights of Indiana

Be Peaceful. Stay Safe.

The Dayton Community Police Council (CPC) is aware that the Honorable Sacred Knights of Indiana (HSK) is planning to hold a rally in downtown Dayton on May 25, 2019. The CPC unequivocally condemns any message of hate and in no way supports HSK's efforts to disrupt and corrupt the residents of the Greater Dayton community. The City of Dayton has profusely stated that "Hate is not a Dayton value" and the Dayton Police Department stands on its core values of "Professionalism, Integrity, Fairness and Respect." The CPC will continue to work with the City of Dayton and law enforcement to enhance efforts to keep Dayton residents safe. The CPC encourages residents and community to do what they feel is right in the face of hate and in doing so, remaining peaceful, law-abiding and staying safe. The CPC remains dedicated to improving the City of Dayton by helping to ensure that we are unified around the common goal of safety, fairness, respect and justice.
